House - building advance to A. Krishnamachar manager of the Dewan's office.

OFFICE OF THE COMPTROLLER, MYSORE

My dear friend

I have to thank you for your letter of this date and I shall be glad to go through the question of advances to my brother

The house advance was mentioned by me to the Dewan & he promised to consider it. As regards the others it will be necessary to enquire in the various Depts what their claims remain as yet unsettled & whether they are not subject to change & to these advances I shall go through the cases with more leisure & then submit the matter for the decisions orders —

But I do not see why the simple rule of other better in questions should be complied with

My dear friend

I personally represented the circumstances of the Krishna Rao Madhava's children & the Dewan and he was pleased to say that he would consider and pass orders about the appointments of the advances standing in his name. The papers are now with me. I beg therefore he submitted to the Dewan

The balance 1

vance for buildings is correct But it is stated that the first item of arrears in the three advan ces was discharged by my brother from the commence ment His time is fully as regards the second item in his papers and as regards the item three of arrears are entered in the accompanying note book kept by my brother I have shewn it to

Noted. Copy was sent to Mr. Ramaswamy Iyer & accounts officer Iyer during who made a Enquiry I believe of the advances given by the chief secretary and steps for recovery and I cannot well understand why the facts were not reported to you I may also state that during his illness my brother had the Northern Indra Iyer account compiled and given to Mr. M. Narain Rao and mentioned to me that there were no arrears for advances the deposited has makers also notice no claim of arrears But does just possible that his has been so the he might have forgotten these

I am yours
Very truly
